Coverage is defined as the number of samples affected by the split

Feature importance